MEMBERSHIP

6. Membership may be applied for by any person who purports to be in accord with the Objectives of this Constitution and no matter where, if a breeder or owner, their breed records are held. Application for membership of the association must:
- Be in writing; and
 - Be signed by the applicant; and
 - Have the appropriate annual membership fee attached.
 - On a form decided by the Management Committee.

MEMBERSHIP FEES

7. The membership fee for each class of membership:-
- is the amount decided by the members from time to time at the Annual General Meeting.
 - Is payable at the time of application for membership.

ADMISSION AND REJECTION OF MEMBERS

- 8.
- The Management Committee must consider an application for membership at the next meeting of the Committee held after it is received.
 - The Management Committee must decide at the meeting whether to accept or reject the application.
 - If a majority of the Management Committee members at the meeting vote to accept the applicant as a member, the applicant must be accepted as a member to the class of membership applied for.
 - The Secretary of the association must, as soon as practicable after the Management Committee decides to accept or reject an application, give the applicant written notice of the decision and return the application fee if application has been rejected. If an application is rejected, no reason needs to be given.

WHEN MEMBERSHIP ENDS

- 9.
- A member may resign from the association by giving a written notice of resignation to the Secretary.
 - The resignation takes effect on:
 - the day and at the time the notice is received by the secretary; or
 - if a later day is stated in the notice – the later day.
 - The Management Committee may terminate a member's membership of the member:
 - Is convicted of an indictable offence; or
 - Does not comply with any of the provisions of these rules; or
 - Has membership fees in arrears for at least 2 months; or
 - Conducts himself or herself in a way considered to be injurious or prejudicial to the character or interests of the association.
 - Before the Management Committee terminates a member's membership, the committee must give the member a full and fair opportunity to show why the membership should not be terminated.
 - If, after considering all representations made by the member, the Management Committee decides to terminate the membership; the secretary of the committee must give the member a written notice of the decision.

APPEAL AGAINST TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

10. (a) A person whose membership has been rejected or terminated may give the secretary written notice of the person's intention to appeal against the decision.
- (b) A notice of intention to appeal must be given to the secretary within 1 month after the person receives written notice of the decision.
- (c) If the secretary receives a notice of intention to appeal, the secretary must, within 3 months after the day of receipt, call a general meeting to decide the appeal.
- (d) At the meeting the applicant must be given a full and fair opportunity to show why the membership should not be terminated.
- (e) Also, the Management Committee and the committee members who terminated the membership must be given an opportunity to show why the membership should be terminated.
- (f) An appeal must be decided by a vote of the members present at the meeting.

REGISTER OF MEMBERS

11. (a) The Management Committee must keep a register of members.
- (b) The register of members must include the following particulars of each member:
 - (i) the full name and residential address of the member.
 - (ii) the telephone number and email address of the member.
 - (iii) The date of admission as a member.

- (ii) The nomination must be in writing.
- (iii) The nomination must be given to the Secretary at least 14 days before the Annual General Meeting at which the election is to be held.
- (b) Each member present at the Annual General Meeting may vote for any number of candidates not more than the number of vacancies.
- (c) if, at the start of the meeting, there are not enough candidates nominated, nominations may be taken from the floor of the meeting.
- (d) if required by the management committee, balloting lists must be prepared containing the names of the candidates in alphabetical order.

RESIGNATION OR REMOVAL FROM OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

- 14. (a) A management committee member may resign from the committee by giving written notice of resignation to the secretary.
- (b) The resignation takes effect on:
 - (i) the day and at the time the notice is received by the Secretary or
 - (ii) if a later day is stated in the notice – the later day.
- (c) A member may be removed from office at a general meeting of the association if a majority of the members present at the meeting vote in favour of removing the member.
- (d) Before a vote of members is taken about removing the member from office, the member must be given a full and fair opportunity to show cause why he or she should not be removed from office.
- (e) A member has no right of appeal against the member's removal from office under this section.

VACANCIES ON MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

- 15. (a) If a casual vacancy happens on the management committee, the continuing members of the committee may appoint another member of the association to fill the vacancy until the next Annual General Meeting.
- (b) The continuing members of the management committee may act despite a casual vacancy on the management committee.
- (c) However if the number of committee members is less than the number fixed under these rules as a quorum of the management committee the continuing members may act only to:
 - (i) increase the number of management committee members to the number required for a quorum or
 - (ii) call a general meeting of the association.

FUNCTIONS OF THE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

- 16. (a) Subject to these rules or a resolution of the association, members carried at a general meeting, the management committee:
 - (i) has the general control and management of the administration of the affairs, property and funds of the association and
